Section 2 - Authorization

I understand that this request will be processed as soon as operationally feasible in accordance with provisions of my retirement plan. I also understand that this form does not initiate a transfer to the above allocation percents. Freedom One Retirement Services does not render investment advice to employees or plan participants who participate in the retirement plan with respect to the plan's investment options. Plan participants who desire such advice should consult their own investment advisor before making a final decision.
