GRAND RAPIDS MANUFACTURING COMPANY CHOOSES FREEDOM 401(k)

MICHIGAN, April 21, 2008 – Wolverine Coil Spring Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan has chosen Freedom One Retirement Services as their 401(k) plan consultant.

Wolverine Coil Spring Company, a manufacturing company with over 50 employees, received Manufacturer of the Year Award in 2004. The goal of Wolverine Coil Spring is to meet its customers' needs and expectations with the lowest total cost and highest value through continuous improvement, variation reduction, and a QS-9000 registered quality system.

Jay Dunwell, owner of Wolverine Coil, also places great importance on his employees. As a result, the 401(k) plan ranks high on his list. Jay was disappointed with the level of education provided from his previous 401(k) provider and was concerned with the plan's overall participation. The company has excellent employee tenure. "When it comes time for retirement, I want my employees to be prepared," said Jay. Freedom One's group and individual meetings will educate my employees and provide the level of knowledge that I expect from a 401(k) provider. The Freedom 401(k) was exactly what I was looking for."

Mark Wayne, President & CEO of Freedom One stated; "Freedom One's communication abilities have frequently resulted in employees tripling the amounts they save for retirement. An increase in contribution rates will create tens of thousands of dollars in additional tax savings for the employees at Wolverine Coil. More importantly, employees will be substantially better prepared and happier as they move into their retirement."
